

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In this eFile we focus on our newly launched trust advisory and support services. We provide professional and practical advice and support to your trust, non-profit company or public organisation, and we are able to assist with your compliance and governance requirements.

TRUST ADVISORY AND SUPPORT

About Us

Harty Rushmere Trust Advisory and Support Services is an integral part of the services offered by Harty Rushmere Attorneys, a specialist commercial law firm with over thirty years of experience. Our clients include trusts, companies and public benefit organisations, and we have acted on behalf of founders, donor and beneficiary organisations, trustees as well as trust administrators.

Our Mission

To provide professional and practical value-added advisory and support services to assist trusts, non-profit companies and public benefit organisations in complying with their administrative and governance requirements in an individualised, cost-effective and efficient manner.

We recognise and support the role of the non-profit sector as a vital component of our economy, emphasising the need for compliance and governance to ensure the sustainability of public benefit organisations and promote the social impact achieved by their funders.
